RUTLAND BURLINGTON MANCHESTER

We Offer Pure Cane
American Refined Granulated
SUGAR
100 Pound Sacks $16.95

Cash with Order—Sugar to be Delivered from Car Due to Arrive About September 29th.

We cannot prophesy what the future price of Sugar may be, but here are the facts as we know them:—

- (1) The Sugar crop of the world was over two million tons short of the average in 1920.
- (2) The high price in the United States has drawn Sugar from every part of the world.
- (3) The recent decline now makes the United States the lowest market and consequently much of the sugar is now being exported.
- (4) So-called sugar experts claim that the present export movement will soon dispose of the present United States surplus, and when this is accomplished the price will return to the high level of the early summer.
- (5) The C. C. S. Co. on account of existing conditions do not look for the extra high prices this fall prophesied by experts, but we believe present prices offer a good opportunity to purchase. If you think as we do send us your order for your requirements accompanied by the cash price.

Aided by the mysteries of makeup and the canny art of photographers, the movie actresses and actors have been able to impersonate almost everything from monkeys to princesses of the house of Pharaoh, from the prehistoric man to kings of mythi-cal nations and from the plain everyday roughneck to presidents of this great and glorious republic. Provided she has the proper physical proportions, a "star" with a record of at least two divorces, can be thrown up on the screen as the guileless country maiden of sweet sixteen and get away with it. Dressed up with a wild hat and some sheepskin chaps, a hero who once believed that a horse and its rider could be hidden in a clump of sage brush, will give a exhibition of broncho busting and hit the bullseye five times out five with him. When the former matinee idol attempts to look like a hard-headed business man that he falls down and falls hard. The soft, too frequently loose-living actor would be mistaken for a captain of industry in real life about as quick as one would fail to distinguish between a cased cuckoo and an unrestrained eagle.

Big league baseball is going through one of the spasms that crops out periodically in all branches of professional sport. Competition in outdoor and indoor games, whether for money prizes or by hired players is bound to develop some crookedness. Foot racing, pugilism, wrestling and professional basketball have all gone through experiences of this nature.
There was a time when professional foot racing had a considerable following in this country but eventually the sprinters became so crooked that a straight race was the exception. Runners of "fixing" have followed many of the big prize fights during the last twenty years and wrestling matches have been subjected to even more suspicion. Baseball has been comparatively clean; at least the thousands who have been present at the contests believed it to have been fairly free from suspicion. The disclosure of the grand jury proceedings in Chicago, however, are conclusive enough to prove that men who make a business of gambling have fastened their pernicious taint upon the sport to some extent. A house cleaning is bound to result for the reason that once the club owners, who have made millions out of the business, realize that games are being played for the benefit of the crooked gamblers instead of for the public, the public will not longer through the ball parks. The large number of honest players, too, should be more than willing to take a hand because they are just as much interested, and more so, than the club owners.

STEALS, DIAMOND, STICKPIN

Takes Pin from Trunk in St. John-bury Barn.

St. Johnsbury, Sept. 27.—Edward Drew was the victim of a daring robbery on Friday, when his trunk was broken open and a valuable diamond stickpin and $35 was stolen from it.

Mr. Drew is employed by Aaron Groat and has kept his trunk with other belongings in the barn, just back of the Groat house. The doors are usually open as Mr. Drew is in and about at all hours of the day.

Friday forenoon he made a trip to the East Side with the team and on his return to the barn found his clothes in disorder, a blanket and coat on the floor and the heavy brass lock on his trunk had been pried open with a chisel. The contents of the upper tray of the trunk were tossed about and a gold stickpin with a diamond setting valued at $35, several handkerchiefs and a box of tobacco were found to be missing. Aside from the intrinsic value of the pin, Mr.
Drew valued it highly as a keepsake.

A partially smoked cigar which was still smoking lay on the arm of a chair when Mr. Drew arrived, and the thief had evidently been a hasty retreat. The theft was reported at once to Sheriff E. J. Hill, who is conducting a rigid investigation.

THAT MORNING LAMENESS

If you are lame every morning, and suffer urinary ills, there must be a cause. Often it's weak kidneys. To strengthen the weakened kidneys and avert more serious troubles, use Doan's Kidney Pills. You can rely on Bennington woman's testimony.
Mrs. Mary Manney, 124 Adams St., Bennington, says: "Over a year ago I suffered with very painful backaches. Whenever I would bend over I would have sharp twinges of pain in the small of my back. When would get up in the morning it would be some time before I was limbered up. I also felt very tired, when arising in the morning. Through the newspaper I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and started their use. I used about one box of Doan's and have had no return of my former trouble. Since my cure I can recommend Doan's very highly. I generally buy them at Go-day's Drug Store."
(Statement given August 24, 1916.) On April 2, 1920, Mrs. Manney said: "Time will never change my high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills and I shall always give this remedy my endorsement. My kidney trouble is a thing of the past since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me so I cheerfully confirm all that I said in my recommendation of 1916."

PETEY, LISTEN HARD!

Buffalo, N. Y. — on a Saturday!

When it's your good luck to butt into Buffalo, go to that store on Ellicott Square where the dark haired clerk slips out Camels with both hands—plus a tank of talk on the side!

The thing that tickled me most was his surrens that I was after Camels! As soon as I had my coin on the counter and before I could say a word, he flashed me a package of Camels! When I asked him how he knew I wanted Camels, he took a pull on his laugh stock and soaked me with this:—"Can't tell you, old mayonnaise—I'm dressing!"

After he had waited on several other men who drew their Camels like I did, this salesman said:—"For a fact, most men here smoke Camels.
They hit the popular taste! Camels have the right body and the right mildness and the right flavor! They're ALL right!"

And, Pete—he added this without a stutter: The more I see of the world and the more I learn about cigarettes, the more respect I have for Camels and Camels quality! I don't believe a better cigarette could be made at any price!" And Pete—oh, Pete—listen to this gem:—"And it's an odds on bet I'm a good judge. I've tried 'em all—and my taste is the jury box!"

If that isn't a swell line of Camel talk, I'll sell my shoes! But, Peter, that salesman is right!
It's my belief that no cigarette in the world can be favorably compared with Camels—they're so smooth and mellow and delightful!

I'm herewith slipping between the sheets, old book. So, you tell 'em the rest—you're so full of knowledge!

Sincerely

AUTO HIT CARRIAGE

Two Occupants of Latier Tossed 20 Feet and Girl Was Injured.

Burlington, Sept. 26.—An automobile owned and driven by Alvin Boutin of Whitcomb, accompanied by three girls and a Mr. Guyott, struck the carriage occupied by John Basset of Colchester and his daughter on North avenue late last night, smashed the carriage to bits and killed the horse. Mr. Basset and his daughter were thrown about 20 feet. The girl, taken to her home, suffering from injuries to her back and complained of difficulty in breathing. The collision occurred half way between the Maxwell farm and Ethan Allen park.

Deputy Sheriff Charles Spaulding, on his way home from Burlington reached the scene almost immediately.
He promptly took Mr. Boutin's drivers license from him and carried Miss Spaulding and her father to their home.

The Boutin car was said to be going at a terrific speed. The Basset carriage carried a light and was on the right side of the road. The auto, also bound Colchester way, hit the carriage with terrific force and smashed it literally into kindling wood. The horse, horribly injured, had to be shot.
How Mr. Basset and his daughter escaped with their lives was said to be a miracle.
